From the editor

A few months have passed since the great Sunday With Unity, and this tournament has slowly found its place among chess players around the world. Holding such a big competition on a weekly basis is not easy at all. A quick look at the number of winners in their various categories alone shows a lot of energy expended by the organizing team. In addition, the organizing team, by adding some sections, has shown that not only are not tired in this way, but they make every effort to increase the quality of the tournament. But without a doubt, the most difficult and annoying part of their task is finding and dealing with cheaters, of which we will write more in the future. It really hurts to see such superficial and short-sighted people. I will end the speech with a modern poem by the poet Al-Ghias Nowshahri that targets the cheaters:

You do not make any sense;
You do not think at all;
You do not tolerate anything;
You do not ponder;
You do not stop at all to meditate.
You do not even imagine;
You have high expectations;
And you are constantly in decline
And it all comes from cheating;
Cheating,
And cheating.

Interview

Raunak Sadhwani is an Indian chess player born December 22, 2005. International master since 2017, he achieved the third necessary standard for the title of international grandmaster at the age of 13 years 9 months and 28 days and became the 65th Grandmaster from India.

He is one of the Indian players who trained with former Russian world champion Vladimir Kramnik in August 2019.

Dear Raunak, thank you for giving us your time and participating in this interview. How did you learn chess and how did you become a grandmaster?

First of all thank you Unity Chess for organizing such a great online tournament.
My father taught me chess at the age of 8 as a hobby but later on it turned into my passion.

Interview

You had a chance to train by Vladimir Kramnik. Tell us a little about this experience.

As we all know GM Vladimir Kramnik is a legend. His way of teaching is simply awesome. After attending his training sessions, my way of looking at chess positions was altogether different, he taught so many techniques, which are very useful in practical games.

I feel very fortunate to learn the nuances of this beautiful game from the former World champion himself.

Big thanks to the Microsense Networks, Chennai for giving me this opportunity by sponsoring these valuable training sessions.

What is your opinion about Sundays With Unity tournaments? How can it become more useful and attractive?

It's a great online event with many strong players participating, it makes Sundays a real fun day. Increased prize money with a lot of strong players participating is what always professional players want.

Young players enjoy playing in the Arena system. What do you think about this system? Do you want our tournament to be held in the Arena system or Swiss one?

I prefer to play Swiss more because that is the real chess, where you cannot berserk and get more points whereas in Swiss you play with the same point opponents which I think is real chess.

Interview

How much time do you spend on chess during the current pandemic, and how is it divided?

I spend 7-8 Hours in chess, and covers all the aspects of game.

Raunak Sadhwani vs Vishy Anand

Who is your favorite chess player in history? What about the current players?

Vladimir Kramnik is my favorite player because his feel for chess is simply great, he makes things look easy.

My current favorite is Magnus Carlsen because he is having all the qualities which a world champion must have.

Please name some of your favorite chess books? And tell us why you like them?

I like Dvoretsky books because they are quite instructive and educational. I also like to study the old classics.

Becoming the world champion is the dream of every chess player. What are your plans for achieving this?

True it's a dream of every chess player but right now I am focusing to improve my game, compete in strong tournaments, stretch my level of play. I always concentrate on taking my game to the up level.

We wish you all the best.
